Tasik Cermin to reopen on Jan 15

IPOH: Tasik Cermin, which was closed to the public last month, will reopen on Jan 15 after the Ipoh City Council announced it was satisfied with the outcome of an investigation into the case of a man who jumped into the lake.

Mayor Datuk Rumaizi Baharin said Tasik Cermin would open from 8am to 5pm daily. "We hope there will be no recurrence of the incident. We hope the reopening of the lake will revive tourism and make the lake a tourist attraction in Ipoh." On Dec 13, a man dressed in black was recorded jumping into the lake. The 15-second video clip had gone viral on TikTok. Tasik Cermin and its surrounding areas are under the management of Geopark Lembah Kinta and swimming in the lake is prohibited.

The lake was also closed to the public in March last year due to safety reasons. Bernama
